EXQUISITE DETAILS and serenity surround you in this home of immaculate and no-expense spared craftsmanship on 6.3 acres situated in a quiet and picturesque setting within a community of lakes and spacious lots. Four formal bedrooms within the home offer quiet repose, each with their own full bath. There are six full baths total plus additional sleeping quarters. The home is comprised of a main and upper level, plus a full and finished daylight terrace level adds a whole other dimension. The community is gated, protected and uniquely pretty and borders the U.S. National Forest where you can go for a day hike. Paved roads bring you all the way home and the trip through is very scenic. One of the finest and most detailed homes in one of the best settings and one of the most desirable locations in Georgia.
